

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 599

By McDaniel

A RESOLUTION to congratulate Miss Blair Booth of Lexington upon being named Tennessee's Homecoming Queen and to wish her success while representing the State of Tennessee in the National Homecoming Queen Competition.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly are pleased to specially recognize those outstanding young people of this State whose poise, admirable personality traits, and beauty, both inner and outer, make them role models among their peers; and

WHEREAS, one such outstanding young woman is Blair Booth of Lexington, Tennessee, a Senior at Lexington High School and the daughter of Brent and Shelly Booth and Bill and Kim Martin; and

WHEREAS, this remarkable young woman was invited to compete for the title of Tennessee's Homecoming Queen as a result of being selected by her peers as Lexington High School's Basketball Homecoming Queen; and

WHEREAS, while in the State competition, she vied against other young ladies similarly situated across the State; as a result of her selection as Tennessee's Homecoming Queen, Blair received a $2,000 scholarship and is now eligible to participate in the National Homecoming Queen competition for the coveted National Homecoming Queen title and an impressive four year scholarship; and

WHEREAS, in addition to her title as Tennessee's Homecoming Queen, Blair's a proven leader in many clubs and organizations, including serving as Student Council Representative, Senior Class Secretary, Football Cheerleader Co-Captain, Class Sweetheart for four years, and Spanish Club Vice President; she is also an active member in Beta Upsilon Mu Sorority; and

WHEREAS, no stranger to accolades, she is an Honor Student and was voted Most Sophisticated, Sophomore Football Homecoming Princess, and Senior Basketball Homecoming Queen; and

WHEREAS, even with her many accomplishments and commitments, Blair finds time to volunteer her talent and energy to such community service programs as Habitat for Humanity, Carl Perkins Child Abuse Prevention Center, the Summer Reading Program, and the Breakfast with Santa Program; and

WHEREAS, Blair's drive and determination are a source of pride for her family, her school, and her community, and bode well for her future success; she plans to attend Middle Tennessee State University to pursue a career as a Nurse Anesthetist; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we pause in our deliberations to specially recognize and honor one of Tennessee's most promising young persons; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we congratulate Miss Blair Booth upon being named Tennessee's Homecoming Queen and extend to her our best wishes for every success in the upcoming National Homecoming Queen competition and in all her future endeavors.
